ANSWER

The Defendant states the following as her Answer to Plaintiff's Interrogatories:

1. I do not have any information on employees hired by M&S Café. I was only an employee like everyone else. I did not have the authority to hire or fire employees. I do remember a few names who worked with me at the time, such as Nathasa, Lana, Maia, Steve (supervisor). However, I do not have any of their phone numbers, email or any other personal information. As an employee my duty was to maintain the employees' hours worked only.
2. A, I did not hire the Plaintiff, so therefore I had no information on her hiring date. I remember that she had a full-time job and due to her schedule, she was only able to work on the weekends. I do not remember her exact hourly schedule. I do not have any knowledge of her hourly wages. B, I did not determine wages and compensation for employees, so I never had information on any of the employees' wages.
3. My duty covered only schedule shifts for employees and weekly writing their first name and number of days worked on an empty envelope. I did not have the authority to fill the envelope with money or distribute their earnings.

4. I had no such authority. Michael Agola and Steve (supervisor) had the authority to change schedule. There was a board on the wall with a weekly schedule. If either of them did not like the schedule, they made the changes.
5. N/A, I have no such information.
6. N/A, I have no such information.
7. I answered all questions to my best of knowledge.
8. A, Steve was the only supervisor I know of. As I mentioned it, I have no personal information or full name. B, any of the employees I mentioned in question #1 worked with the Plaintiff. I do not remember their exact schedule.
9. A - Michael Agola, B - Michael Agola, C - I had to make the schedule and Michael Agola needed approved it.
